We are a café-restaurant that serves Southeast Asian cuisine that is a combination of Straits Chinese and Malay delicacies. The premises was formerly the guild hall of the Selangor & Federal Territory Laundry Association. The guild was set up at the turn of the century and moved to this part of Chinatown in the 1920s. The two large mirrors that face each other are traditional feng shui mirrors that the Chinese believe would perpetually reflect good luck.

Many of the architectural details of the building have remained unchanged, even the doors to the kitchen still have wooden latches. This type of pre-war shophouses may not exist much longer. Several units in the neighbourhood (Jalan Balai Polis, Jalan Panggong and Jalan Petaling) have either been demolished or renovated beyond recognition, in order to keep up with modern times.

Open daily from 11am to 10pm (last order 9pm). For reservation, call 011-6181 3317.

What is distinct about Southeast Asian cuisine is the deft combination of spices, herbs and ingredients such as turmeric, torch ginger, pepper, kaffir lime, bird's eye chili, nutmeg, tamarind and palm sugar among the diverse flavours.

Another part of the food legacy is the influence of Western cuisine and its many forms adapted over time. Our restaurant is a tribute to all those who have come before us and enhanced the delicacies of the region. Here, we add our own twist to many of the well-known and lesser-known dishes that span various cultures and countries.

Daily except on Wednesday, 11am - 9pm (last order 8.30pm). For reservation, call 011-1218 7691.
